IRATE REPUBLICAN SENATOR DECLARES TOKIO STATEMENT IS "SHEER BUNK."

(International News Service.)
PARIS, July 17.—The statement made by a member of the Japanese commission in an exclusive interview with the International News Service late yesterday that Japan was ready to restore full territorial rights in Kio Chau to China within six months, and recent allegations that she intends to hold Kio Chau in perpetuity, aroused great interest in peace conference circles today. None of the Chinese delegates or any of the allied delegates have thus far commented upon the statement or the far eastern situation.

Japan's promise to restore the territorial rights within six months may open the door to negotiations between China and Japan. Dr. Wellington Koo, head of the Chinese delegation, declared this afternoon.

TO MEET PRESIDENT

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 17.—Three republican senators, McCumber, Colt and Nelson, were to meet President Wilson today, following recent invitations from the White House. Senator McCumber is one of the republicans who had championed the league of nations. Nelson has not yet committed himself and Colt was "willing to be shown." The President plans to devote an hour to each of the senators.

COLT DEFENDS LEAGUE

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 17.—"The league of nations is inseparable from the peace treaty" because the treaty cannot be enforced except through the league which is "absolutely necessary to secure the present and maintain the future peace of the world," declared Senator Colt, republican of Rhode Island, in an address in the senate today.

The Borah resolution was adopted by the senate without a record vote shortly after it convened.

BORAH FIGHTS ON

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 17.—Opposition in the senate to the Shantung settlement will continue despite any declaration that Japan will make that she is prepared to relinquish territorial rights in Kio Chau, or any other part of the Chinese province, Senator Borah, republican of Idaho, an uncompromising league of nations opponent, stated today.

When the senate reconvened at noon, Borah said he was prepared to call up his resolution requesting the president for the written protests against the Shantung pact which Secretary Lansing, Gen. Bliss and Henry White, three American peace commissioners, were said to have signed while the peace commission was still engaged at Paris.

Borah and Senator Sherman of Illinois were among the republicans who stood ready to renew the fight over Shantung in the senate before the end of the day. Borah declared that the Japanese statement was "sheer bunk."

SUTHERLAND DECLINES

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, July 17.—U. S. Senator Howard Sutherland, of West Virginia, member of the senate military affairs committee, declared here today that he would consider it bad form for him to accept any invitation from President Wilson to go to the White House to discuss the league of nations. "The place for the president to talk is in the senate," he added.

DODGE FOR AMBASSADOR

MILAN, July 17.—President Wilson has appointed H. P. Dodge, of Boston, to be U. S. ambassador to Jugo-Slavia, according to a dispatch from Fiume.

COMFORT FOR OUR MERCHANT SAILORS

The mattress and pillows used in the berths of the sailors and firemen aboard government-operated merchant vessels not only are comfortable, but make fine life preservers. Their filling is a soft resilient tropical fiber known as kapoc, which will sustain 25 times its own weight in salt water for 48 hours.

ALABAMA SENATE VOTES FIRST ON SUFF AMENDMENT

HOUSE PASSES THE BUCK TO THE HIGHER LAW-MAKING BODY.

Big Fight Is Now On

COAL AND IRON OPERATORS ARE MAKING VIGOROUS PROTESTS.

(International News Service.)
MONTGOMERY, July 17.—An effort by the "antis" to postpone action on the Susan B. Anthony amendment in the senate was defeated late this morning, and although the senate has not taken definite action on the suffrage question a show down of strength indicates that the amendment will be defeated by about 18 to 15 in the senate.

(International News Service.)
MONTGOMERY, July 17.—The senate is the most popular body in the capitol at this time. The suffrage leaders in the lower house have "passed the buck" by a vote of 48 to 41, giving the senate the right of first decision on ratification of the suffrage amendment. This senate will be forced to show its hand, or to postpone consideration for another day.

MAKE STRONG PROTEST

(International News Service.)
MONTGOMERY, July 17.—The ways, means and appropriations committee met again today to resume the hearing of the vigorous protest of the iron and coal operators against the privilege tax of 5 cents per ton, which is proposed under the new revenue bill. A strong fight is being made against it.

Chicago Harassed By Labor Disputes

(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, July 17.—Labor disputes involving approximately 150,000 workers in Chicago and vicinity had reached a stage today that threatened to develop into one of the most serious industrial situations in the history of the city.

A meeting of the Building Constructing Employees' association to devise means to take care of the situation was called for today. Meanwhile the surface and elevated street railway employees are proceeding with plans for a strike.

COL. HILDRETH TO TAKE HIS INITIAL TRIP TO SKYLAND

AGED EDITOR WILL RIDE WITH AVIATOR MORAN AT 4:30 O'CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON.

Recruiting is Very Brisk

LANDING FIELD IS FOUND AT ATHENS, AND THAT CITY VISITED TUESDAY.

Col. C. J. Hildreth, dean of the local newspaper colony, and one of the oldest editors in Alabama, will take his initial trip to skyland when he goes up this afternoon with Lieut. Moran in the big camouflaged DeHavilland that is now being used here by recruiting officers of the U. S. aerial service. Announcement to this effect was made at noon by Lieut. Dunning, in charge of the party. Col. Hildreth has passed his eightieth milestone, and is perhaps the oldest resident of the state to go "joy riding" in the clouds.

Recruiting proceeded briskly today, and in addition to two men who have been rejected, the following have filed applications and have been signed up: James L. ("Turk") Hardeman, Grady Wade, Clarence Wilbur, Henry Nichols, Graham McDermott.

Hardeman and Wade enlisted as motor mechanics, and both have been taken up for a ride. Hardeman went aloft yesterday afternoon and Wade this morning.

His maneuvers this morning, Lieut. Moran split Second Avenue open just above the building line, the occupants of the plane being quite visible from the street, less than 100 feet below.

TWO CREWS WORK ON NEW LINES OF POWER COMPANY

FOUR HUNDRED MEN WILL BE EMPLOYED, SAYS GADSDEN PAPER.

Comes to Twin Cities

ENTIRE TENNESSEE VALLEY WILL BE GIRDLED BY AN ELECTRIC CURRENT.

By the middle of next week the Alabama Power Company will have 400 men at work building the transmission line from Gadsden to Huntsville and the work will be finished as promptly as possible, says the Gadsden Times News.

Two corps of engineers and two construction crews are at work, one going west and other going east.

The line will go to the north of the city from East Gadsden. It will cross Shiloh ridge at a point near where the oil well in Owl valley is being sunk. It will then cross Lookout mountain and down into Little Wills valley at Reese station. It will cross Big Wills valley just below Burton bridge.

The line will carry current to Boaz, Albertville, Guntersville and Huntsville. Later it will go to Albany, Decatur and Sheffield. Eventually there will be a complete circuit of Birmingham, Tuscaloosa, Gadsden, Talladega, Anniston, Huntsville, Decatur, Sheffield and intervening towns.

The power for the circuit will be furnished from Lock 12 with the plant on the Warrior river helping. The reserve steam plants in East Gadsden and on the Warrior will also play a big part in furnishing current, particularly during low water and in emergencies.

FATS AND LEANS TO MEET FRIDAY IN FINAL CLASH

The Fats and Leans, each with a victory to their credit, and each hankering for the honor of the other's scalp, will meet at the baseball park tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock and play off the tie, the proceeds to go to the school improvement fund. The emaciates, under the leadership of Captain McClary, won the opening round on July 4, and the Corn Feds, piloted by Skipper Thomas, copped victory in the engagement of last Friday. Nothing but a decision would satisfy either team, and real supremacy will be established in the grueling bout of tomorrow. Fans are being urged to come out and see Marvel Rankin, the world's greatest bow pitcher, in his famous wind up. Other promised features of the contest will be the base running of Proctor, elephantine slides by Gardner, baseball ministry by Jourdan, and the umpiring of Whitman.

Final practice will be held at the park this afternoon, at which time rail birds will be given an opportunity to get some inside dope on the form of the two teams.

The funds received from the game in this instance will be used to provide sand boxes for the little tots, it being the plan of those in charge of the children's playground to devote each fund raised to some specific purpose, in connection with the larger plan of completely equipping the playgrounds.

Friday and Saturday Weed Cutting Days

Friday and Saturday of this week have been officially proclaimed as "weed cutting days" by Mayor A. C. Dillohay, of Albany. On these two days "all persons, whether owners or renters, having possession or control of property, whether improved or vacant" are called on to get out the old scythe or the mower and reduce the weed crop to more sanitary proportions. This action will largely contribute to the public health, now menaced by the danger of epidemic.

France to Reduce Cost of Living

(International News Service.)
PARIS, July 17.—The government's attempt to reduce the high cost of living by establishing "cheap restaurants" and doubling the number of government booths where food may be bought cheaply met with general approval today, except from the socialists.

PERSHING'S VETERANS PARADE IN LONDON WHILE CROWDS CHEER

HUNDRED THOUSAND FOR ENTERTAINMENT AMERICANS CONTRIBUTED BY TWO MEN

(International News Service.)
London, July 17.—London today saw the third parade of American soldiers since the beginning of the war. A composite regiment, made up of 3,500 of Gen. Pershing's veterans, arrived at Waterloo Station during the morning and marched down the Strand, while Londoners madly cheered them. The regiment will remain here for six days, as the honor guests of England. The men are billeted in hotels near the U. S. embassy. An elaborate program is provided and Sol Joel, theatrical magnate, and James White, a Scotch contractor, contributed $100,000 for the entertainment of the Americans. The composite regiment is made up of eight men from every infantry company of six American divisions.

TO FLY U. S. FLAG

(International News Service.)
BERLIN, July 17.—A report was current in financial circles today that American financiers propose the reorganization of the Hamburg-American and North German Lloyd steamship lines, and that the vessels will fly the U. S. flag, when again put into commission. The idea is favored by the German stockholders.

HARRIS SECURES THE DODGE AGENCY

MOTOR COMPANY TO BUILD LARGER STOCK ROOM FOR CARRYING PARTS.

The Harris Motors Company announced today that it would now represent the Dodge Bros. Motor Company direct, and has begun the erection of a larger stock room in which to carry automobile parts.

The company will carry in stock every part of the Dodge, Hupp, Hudson and Essex cars, even to the smallest nuts and screws, it was stated.

The Dodge car is one of the popular makes, and large sales in this territory are expected.

Placed on Trial For Wife Murder

(International News Service.)
VICKSBURG, July 17.—That George Harry Johnson, Cedars Miss, telegraph operator, who killed his wife, brought about his martial troubles through an effort to take a trip to the east with a Mrs. Morris, of Mobile, Ala., was the contention of the prosecution when Johnson was placed on trial here today for murder.

ONLY "MORAL AID"

(International News Service.)
PARIS, July 17.—The U. S. will give only "moral aid," if the peace conference decides to take military action against the Hungarian reds and increase the military measures in Russia, according to American delegates here today.

MORGAN COUNTY IS LAGGING ALONG IN MEMORIAL DRIVE

ONLY TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS RAISED TO DATE, SAYS CHAIRMAN JACKSON.

Twin Cities Are Slow

FIELD SUPERVISOR SWEET APPEALS FOR PRESERVATION OF ARCHIVES.

Although the campaign in Morgan county for the Soldier's and Sailors Memorial fund has been under way since June 26, only slightly more than $2,000 of the quota of $8,124 has been raised, according to a report given out today by A. E. Jackson, of Hartselle, county chairman.

The contributions reported to date, by precincts, follows:

Beat	Quota	Paid
Albany	$2800	$
Apple Grove	75	75.00
Danville	250	6.00
Decatur	1200	300.50
Eva	125	60.00
Falkville	425	94.74
Flint	100
Gum Pond	75	37.50
Hartselle	850	983.50
Lacon	150	40.75
Lapes	150	81.00
Lawrence Cove	75	18.85
Massey	250
Nunn's Mill	75	92.43
Priceville	100	105.00
Ryans Cross Road	125	31.00
Shady Grove	100	8.50
Somerville	400	200.00
Trinity	150
Wolfs	125	99.00
Valhermosa Springs	250	154.75

Fred A. Sweet, of Montgomery, field supervisor for the drive, is in the county this week assisting in the work. He was here today, and explained that the proposed building will not only house the archives of the late world war, but also those of the Civil War and other conflicts. "For instance, many of the most valuable records of the Civil War are now in a library at Cambridge, England, though they should be at Montgomery, the cradle of the Confederacy," he said. "This is entirely due to the fact that Alabama has no building in which to store her archives. Many of the personal effects of Jefferson Davis, first and only president of the Confederacy, will be lost for lack of care and a place in which they can be stored and exhibited. Alabama should profit from the mistakes of the past, and see that adequate provision is made to keep green the memories of her heroes of the world war, and to preserve for posterity all official records connected with the part which Alabamians played in forever enthroning democracy."

Mr. Sweet stated that while the report showed no contributions from Albany and other places, this only meant that no returns had been made from these precincts. Albany, he said, had raised a considerable sum, but it has not yet been turned in.

The Association also will make a fight at the polls to defeat every legislator in all the states who voted for the ratification of the national prohibition amendment.

James A. Seavy, managing director of the association, announced that plans for the battle are in the hands of some of the foremost authorities on constitutional law in the United States.

FORD CONFOUNDED BY HIS OWN BOOK

The lean, pallid and revengeful citizen who is credited with exclaiming, "O, that mine enemy might write a book," perhaps did not foresee the present age of authorship when a hired man wields the pen from which flows the thoughts of great minds that are themselves incapable of free expression. He hardly dreamed that "Ty" Cobb would become one of the great sporting editors of his day, as hefty with the typewriter as with the willow; nor could he be expected to guess that "Gentleman Jim" Corbett would blossom into a literary light. This malicious spirit knew nothing of the automobile industry, and for that reason could have had no personal grievance against Henry Ford. Yet, his prophetic words fit the case of the creator of the "Lizzie," who not only committed the indiscretion of writing a book, but who paid a satellite to spread the ink for him. That Henry is guilty was well known; that he was indiscreet was proven when he became a witness in his own behalf in his libel suit against the Chicago Tribune and was grilled by shrewd attorneys who were more familiar with the Ford book than was the Detroit magnate himself.

Theodore De Lavigne, who is not related to either of the two men whom his name suggests, is the Ford ready writer. He possesses quite a vocabulary and no doubt being well paid—for Mr. Ford is a man of generous impulses—gave his client the best that he had. His crowded vocabulary overflowed as he denounced war, in the days prior to America's entry into the world struggle. A sample of this word-tide, as quoted at the hearing, was:

It (war) is the same old scare-crow talk by the same old lazy vultures who make human lives, seldom their own, the stake in their so-called battle of brains.

I feel that this cry for the training of men to kill other men and for the placing of the army and navy as a burden on the backs of the people, is a false conception of patriotism and treason to the life of the people.

Mr. Ford, the witness, when interrogated by legal talent as to the meaning of this statement could only reply that "if it was in the book it was true." He even went so far as to admit that he was an "ignorant idealist" and to concede that Benedict Arnold was a writer (like himself). In fact, he made it very plain that his talent is not dissimulation, and that his genius has a decidedly mechanical bent. Although he knows more about making motor cars of a certain type than any other man in the world, and can manufacture Eagle boats by the million, he is not at home in the realms of literature. Mr. Ford is like most everyone else—capable of doing some things well. He can be criticised only for failure to "stick to his last."

Wonder what profiteer will store and resell the day-light that is being saved?

The non-stop high price of living flights would not be so bad if their itinerary did not include the Twin Cities.

The prohibitionists talked the 2.75 per cent beer out of existence. That must have been a mighty dry argument.

If the late President Grover Cleveland were now living he would doubtless say that Jess Willard had fallen into "innocuous desecution."

The reason nobody loves a fat man is because such are suspected of being in collusion with the packing house magnates.

When a local airplane does not start on time should it be said to be behind time, or what?

Dr. Wilks has suggested a splendid philosophy viz., think first, then speak, then act.

It is said that the Tower of London is being suitably fitted up as the place where the recent Paris-taking Kaiser will eat his Christmas dinner.

Mrs. York did right to rope in Colonel York soon after his return to America, as there are too many heroines in Tennessee to have let such a hero go around loose for very long.

TODAY

Man Leaves the Bottom.
Rome Did What We Do.
She Still Fights.
Buy Now, or Regret Later.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

(Written July 11.)

By the way, American individuals and American business men will do well to BUY NOW.

You think prices are high. They are, but wait a while and you will see some real high prices, after Europe begins to buy and this country starts in spending freely the billions that have been printed and scattered about in this war.

Business men, buy your stocks now, or regret it later. Individuals, buy what you will need for the next twelve months NOW, if you can.

Nothing will be cheaper, except money, which is just now the cheapest thing in the world.

You have noticed how high wages and high cost of living creep up side by side, the high cost of living always keeping a little ahead. It cannot be otherwise.

Six workers are making shoes, hats, clothes, bread, houses, furniture. They find living expensive, ask for more and get it. The sellers of shoes, hats, clothes, food, etc., raise their prices because wages have been raised and up goes cost of living. By and by the workers come back saying, "Living has gone up again, we must have more." They get more, living goes higher again and they, the workers, come back again for more. It is an endless chain. Just where it will stop time will tell.

Meanwhile, BUY NOW, do not wait to discover just how high prices can go. If possible buy a dwelling and be independent to that extent.

Just about twenty-three hundred years ago Rome found that her treaties with her allies were getting old and decrepit. She renewed her treaty with Carthage, including the humiliating agreement to trade only where Carthage permitted, and was soon at war with her most powerful neighbor.

The Gauls had dropped in and burned Rome, recently, the dangerous rival had been killed off, with the capture and looting of Veii, the inhabitants all made slaves. Then it had to be done over again, and over again, on and on, through the century-tary Glass.

We are just making alliances and a league to last forever. We have defeated the powerful enemy and have reduced her to economic slavery.

Shall we have to do it again, over and over, or have we at last found the resting place and balanced the pyramid of human selfishness neatly and permanently on its point?

One year and seven months of war cost the people of the United States, gross, more than thirty billions of dollars. Those are figures from Secre-

It was a busy, expensive period of nineteen months. This total of thirty billions will cut down somewhat, in a rather unpleasant way, when ships built by the people are sold at bargain prices to private owners, instead of being retained in Government ownership, as they should be. The cost of war will be reduced also WHEN AND IF our friends in Europe return nine billions lent them.

As you learn about the cost of war, almost two billions a month, you take fresh interest in the League of Nations.

In Olde Virginia

Where Cigarette Tobacco Was born

Along toward early autumn, after the tobacco crop had been cured, and packed away in the barns, the planters from up and down the river would foregather, usually at the Strohbridge place, thence to set out on the first fox hunt of the season.

—Early Virginia, page 243.

Times change, but Virginia tobacco still holds the world's favor

WHEN, in 1618, Virginia tobacco was introduced into England, it quickly became "the rage." Since then it has gained steadily in popularity all over the world.

In 1918, in the United States alone, five times more Virginia tobacco was smoked in cigarettes than all the foreign-grown tobaccos combined. That's because a cigarette of sun-ripened Virginia has a crisp, lively relish that no cigarette of foreign or mixed tobaccos can match.

Piedmonts—made entirely of choicest Virginia tobacco—will prove this to you.

The Virginia Cigarette

Piedmont

NOTE—Virginia tobacco is grown here in the U.S.A. Unlike foreign-grown tobaccos, it carries no import duty. Import duty doesn't make a cigarette any better—it merely adds to its cost. Piedmonts give you better value because all your money buys tobacco quality.

Southside Church

PREACHING IS BEING DONE BY
REV. C. D. BOOZER, OF KENTUCKY.

Since Sunday a strong revival meeting has been in progress at the Southside Baptist church under the leadership of the Pastor, Rev. G. C. Walker, and Rev. C. D. Boozer, of Owenton, Ky. The first named minister is doing the preaching, while the song service is being led by Rev. Walker, assisted by Mrs. Walker. The attendance so far has reached a good average, with interest growing each day. Last night Rev. Boozer preached a strong gospel sermon and urged the acceptance of Christ by all who had not professed faith in Him. Each day at noon the visiting evangelist and Rev. Walker hold short gospel services at the L. & N. shop gates.

FATHER IS GRANDFATHER

TO HIS OWN CHILD NOW

(International News Service.)

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 17.—Can a man be his own child's grandfather?

Can a woman be her own child's sister-in-law?

If a father-in-law and daughter-in-law marry, how is anybody to keep track of the multiplicity of relations?

As a start toward puzzling possibilities, Fred Schmidt, sixty years old, of Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., and his daughter-in-law, Emma Schmidt, thirty-two, have procured a marriage license from the Jersey City Clerk.

Ten Commandments
to Be Cut Down Because Are too Long

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN DETROIT WILL RECEIVE NEW FORM.

(International News Service.)

BOSTON, Mass., July 17.—The Ten Commandments have been "cut down." Believing that in the present form the Decalogue is too long, a briefer form has been drawn up for Episcopal churches of America, according to an unpublished report of the prayer book committee, which will be submitted to the general convention of the church in Detroit in October. Here are the old and the new forms of the Decalogue:

New Form

I.—God spake these words and said: I am the Lord thy God; thou shalt have none other gods but me.

II.—Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them nor worship them.

III.—Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.

IV.—Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days shalt thou labor and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God.

V.—Honor thy father and thy mother.

VI.—Thou shalt do no murder.

VII.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.—Thou shalt not steal.

IX.—Thou shalt not bear false witness.

X.—Thou shalt not covet.

Old Form

I.—God spake these words and said: I am the Lord thy God; thou shalt have none other gods but me.

II.—Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or in the earth below or in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them; for I, the Lord thy God, am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generations of them that hate me; and show mercy unto thousands in them that love me and keep my commandments.

III.—Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

IV.—Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all that thou hast to do, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work; thou, and thy son, and thy maid servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day and hallowed it.

V.—Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI.—Thou shalt do no murder.

VII.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.—Thou shalt not steal.

IX.—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is his.

London Papers Insist
The People Want and Need More Beer

By EARL C. REEVES,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent.

LONDON, July 17.—More and stronger beer has come to be one of the prime questions of the day in England. Efforts are being made in various circles to make it a cabinet question, while some of the more thirsty elements, like the miners of Monmouthshire, are getting quick action by buying a brewery for themselves.

For the benefit of the so-called "governmental ostrich," the Daily Express recites the following for the benefit of those ministers who have their head in the sands:

"1. The people not only want beer, but need beer. Real beer, not the eyewash of wartime.

"2. Beer to the worker is often food as well as drink. To the thirsty it is a comparatively harmless drink. It is also agreeable to the British palate.

"3. The lack of beer without compelling reason is fomenting all sorts of discontents.

"4. Unless the Government announce publicly a final decision they will get all the trouble for which they seem to be seeking.

"5. If more and better beer is really impossible if its provision would curtail bread supply, let the Government say so and give definite proof.

"6. If it is not impossible let the restrictions be removed.

"7. No questions of temperance of teetotalism are involved in the much simpler one of beer or no beer.

"8. Only Cabinet Ministers fail to grasp these clear facts. Their failure is a peril to them and to their country."

Editorials in similar strain have appeared in Northcliffe's newspapers and other periodicals.

The timeworn and proven efficacious method in Great Britain of allaying all manner of discontent by cheap beer and plenty of it is thus being again trotted out to calm the distempers than today seem to be affecting the lower classes of the United Kingdom.

Peace Almost Causes
Trouble on Transport

(International News Service.)

NEW YORK, July 17.—When the armored cruiser North Carolina docked at Pier 4, Brooklyn, a few days ago, the army men on board were both surprised and discomforted to learn that a wireless message announcing the signing of the peace treaty flashed to the transport at sea was authentic. They declared that they had believed it a "frame up," and thereby hangs a tale.

As soon as peace was officially concluded the Radio Department at Washington sent out wireless notification to all transports, directing them to stop wherever they might be, fire a salute of twenty-one guns, have the ship's band play the "Star Spangled Banner," and order everybody on board to stand rigidly at attention throughout the ceremony.

When Captain William D. MacDougall, commander of the North Carolina, received his copy of the historic wireless the 1,595 troops on board, some army and some navy men, commanded by Major R. L. Radcliff, were cheering madly the participants in the star bout of an entertaining pugilistic programme, arranged to relieve the tedium of their trip home.

In the event James ("Spike") O'Brien, of Brooklyn, represented the army and Fred Warren, an oiler on the ship, carried the colors of the navy. Both boys had put up a lively bout and Warren was about "all in."

At the bugle sounding "attention" everybody straightened up, Warren groggy as he was, even staggering to the ropes and holding himself as erect as possible under the circumstances.

When the reverberation of the last of the salute of twenty-one guns died away and the concluding strains of the national anthem melted into silence, the gong rang for resumption of the interrupted bout.

Whether his deep inhalation of bracing sea air or the inspiration derived from the gunfire and the stirring band music accomplished the near miracle will never be known. At any rate Warren, the sailor, leaped from his corner with all the vigor in the world and dashed at "Spike."

Spectators of the thrilling affair declared that Warren pounced "Spike" all about the padded ring, and in a minute and a half crashed a "hay-maker" to the trooper's chin that sent him over the ropes and ended the scrap.

Instantly all was uproar and wildest confusion about the ring. A tremendous roar of anger and chagrin went up from the throats of the army rooters, and cries of "fake," "frame up," popped out of them like corks from bottles in a drinking bout.

As soon as the North Carolina touched her pier eager voices from her deck called out questions as to whether peace was really signed. Assured it was, the questioners snorted with disgust. "Well, we would have sworn it was a deliberate plot to give the navy a chance to beat us."

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The senate prohibition enforcement bill will be reported to the full judiciary committee on Monday, Senator Sterling, chairman of the sub-committee drafting the measure, stated today.

Mrs. Edward McDowell is a pianist who occupies a most unique position in the musical world. The recitals she gives of her dead celebrated husband's compositions are to further the work of the McDowell Memorial association. At her invitation the National Federation of Musical clubs held their biennial in Petersburg, N. H., celebrating the eleventh anniversary of the organization. At the close of the convention the members made a pilgrimage to Edward McDowell's tomb to do homage to the master. In a restrained and unsentimental way, as McDowell would have wished, the grave was circled by the members while an orchestra played "Constancy" and "To a Wild Rose," etc, the works of the musician. There was no hero worship, just a tribute to the beloved dead by his friends and lovers of his superb musical productions.

TO THOSE WHO MAY BECOME IMPATIENT

A Statement by the Harris Motors Company

The past few months have not been very happy times with us. We have had to ask numbers of purchasers to wait for the cars they had bought, and that is never a pleasant thing to do.

With the weather as it is now, a buyer wants immediate delivery, and it is hard to tell him that it may be a matter of a week or more before we can make it.

But here is the consolation we have:

We know that when he does get his car it will be as much of a car as he was expecting.

We know that at the end of thirty days he will not be wishing that he had bought something else.

We know that before the summer is over the disappointment over a little delay will have been forgotten in the satisfaction derived from thousands of miles of faultless service.

A car that proves unsatisfactory is never a good investment, no matter how promptly it was delivered.

We know this from the experiences of those who have felt they could not wait and later came to ask us to take in the cars they bought as part payment for the ones they did not wait for. We can do this sometimes, but it always means a loss to them—often quite a substantial loss.

The cars we are selling are not the only good cars in the world, but the dealers in other good cars are usually in the same fix we are in.

Indeed, that is one of the ways of determining which are the good cars.

A car that can be delivered immediately at this season of the year is usually a car that people are not buying a second time.

All this may sound a little prejudiced in our own behalf, but really we are speaking as much for the buyer's good as for our own.

We absolutely know that in the long run a man is better satisfied to have bought a good car and had to wait a little time for it than to have bought a poor one and secured it immediately.

(International News Service.) LONDON, July 17.—The new dances which are done more with the upper part of the body than with the feet find little popularity among London's judiciary. A woman proprietor of a dancing academy recently appeared before Justice Darlin, suing for the return of her piano. "Why," asked the Justice in surprise, "can people dance these modern dances to such a civilized instrument as the piano? I should have thought that a tom tom would be more appropriate."

HOW SHIVAR ALE RENEWES HEALTH

New England Scientist Discovers the Secret of the Well-Known Health Giving Properties of This Famous Southern Product

Dr. W. H. Morse, Consulting Scientist, Hartford, Conn., after careful analysis and experimentation, has discovered the scientific reasons for the well-known medicinal effects of Shiver Ale, a Southern mineral water product, whose health giving properties have won the favor of the medical profession, as well as the laity, throughout America.

Dr. Morse's attention was first attracted to this subject by own personal experience in the use of the Ale, and by his observation of its beneficial effects upon his patients, but not being contented to merely observe the results, he decided to find out the cause. His analysis and practical tests disclose the fact that Shiver Ale possesses marked beneficial effects upon the system in three relations, namely, digestion, nutrition and excretion. Dr. Morse finds that the Ale increases the flow of the digestive fluids, namely, saliva, gastric juice and the pancreatic and intestinal juices, thus assisting weak stomachs in the digestion of all varieties of foods. It prepares the food completely for absorption and nutrition, thereby improving the health, strength and nourishment of the system as a whole, including the stomach itself, for the stomach is one of the first organs to suffer from the consequences of its own failure to properly digest food.

Dr. Morse further explains that in consequence of the perfect digestion and the increase of digestive fluids, the Ale corrects constipation, biliousness, headache, numerous forms of auto-intoxication, uric acid poisoning and many other disorders growing out of faulty digestion and faulty elimination.

"LAYING-BY" CORN.

By P. O. Davis, Asst. Boys' Club Agent

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

The cultivation of corn should continue until the silking period, thereby enabling the soil to retain moisture which is greatly needed. By corn in this stage. The last or laying-by cultivation should be similar to other cultivations—never deeper than two inches, leaving the soil in fine, loose, smooth condition. A wide scrape is an excellent implement to use.

Plowing alone should not complete the laying-by process, an essential part of which should be the immediate planting of a following cover crop as a protection to the soil. Either rye or cowpeas should be sowed broadcast in front of the plow at the laying-by cultivation, which will cover the seed. Peas planted at this time are primarily for soil building, while rye will furnish pasture, prevent winter leaching, and add organic matter if turned under in the spring. Each will act as a nurse crop for bur clover, which is an excellent crop to be sown with either one.

As a soil builder and pasture crop bur clover stands among the best. It has proven its value in every section of Alabama. During the winter it acts as a cover crop and early in the spring it is ready for grazing. It will furnish an abundant pasture until May, when it should be turned under and the land again planted to corn or some other crop. If turned under green, it adds a large quantity of organic matter and plant food to the soil. To reseed itself it must be allowed to mature.

For a good stand the first year, eight or ten bushels to the acre are necessary. It must, however, be kept in mind that bur clover seed may require two years in coming up.

Not to sow a cover crop as suggested above will be a mistake, because such crops are essential for the building up of soil, which is the southern farmer's greatest problem. A good crop of bur clover turned under has been known to double the yield of corn in one year. It is a good thing to start with an acre or even less, and use it as a seed bed to seed the entire farm within a few years.

FEEDER HOGS VERSUS FINISHED HOGS.

By J. T. Watt, State Demonstration Agent.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

The fact that Alabama is rapidly gaining ground as a hog producing state, is being shown by the work the Extension Service is being called upon to do. The county agents in practically every county in the State, with the assistance of the marketing specialists of the Extension Service, have made regular shipments each week of carlots of hogs. They are not only looking after the shipping, but they are teaching some of the principles of profitable feeding by supervising the feeding of a lot of these hogs that are being shipped to market.

The Farm Demonstration Agent of Conecuh County, has been making co-operative shipments of hogs every two weeks since September. On May 27th the last sale was held, and 2 cars of hogs were shipped. One car of these hogs had been brought to a previous sale by farmers who were short of feed and were offering them for sale before they were finished for market. Of course, this meant that they would not bring the top of the market. The Agent succeeded in getting a number of these farmers to take these hogs back home and feed them and sell them later, even if they had to buy feed. The following shows the result: A large part of the hogs in this sale had been fed from 30 to 60 days by farmers as a demonstration in feeding. One farmer sold a demonstration lot of 42 hogs, that brought him $1070. Another lot made a farmer a net profit of $7.00 per head after all feeding expenses had been deducted. This farmer went into the market and bought feed and it was charged to these hogs at cost.

The Farm Demonstration Agent, of Covington County, reports the following: "One farmer fed 105 head of hogs for 30 days on shorts, tankage and corn. These hogs weighed 132 pounds each at the beginning of the feeding period, and gained an average of 54 pounds per head at a cost of 13.6c per pound. In figuring the cost per pound the feed, cost of inoculation, labor, lot rent and loss of two hogs were charged. These hogs brought 181.2c on the market and showed a net gain of $48.48 or $5.26 per head."

These agents are starting this work for the reason that a number of farmers in the corn belt have been buying feeder hogs all through South Alabama, shipping them to their farms in Indiana, Illinois and other States, and in a great many cases, have bought peanut meal and cotton seed meal, and shipped up there to feed them. The county agents want the farmers in their counties to finish these hogs on their own farms, ship them to market and get all the profit there is to be made.
